

OPERATION UNDIES

An OFSS Initiative

From January 1-31 of 2022, Captain Commando will be in Edmonton to undertake his greatest task yet:

Collect 1000 pairs of new underwear for inner-city seniors in need!

Captain Commando

The Captain emerges whenever he senses an underwear shortage, standing in solidarity with those in need. He goes commando so that nobody else has to!

Long John Jimmy

Captain Commando's trustworthy sidekick. Legend has it that Captain Commando donated his only pair of underwear to Jimmy so that Jimmy could keep his head warm

Our favorite philanthropist and his sidekick Long John Jimmy cannot do it alone, however: they will need help from YOU to donate new underwear and spread the word using the hashtag #OperationUndies
